The Namibia Press Agency (NAMPA), a national and international news and information provider in Namibia, is currently seeking the services of Reporter, Omaheke Region (Grade C1), Duty station Gobabis. This position reports to the Assistant News Editor.

Purpose of the position

The purpose of the position of Reporter (Omaheke Region) is to man the NAMPA office, and report comprehensively on activities, issues and events in the region in text, picture and video format. To be a representative of NAMPA in the region, promoting the name, image and work of the News Agency and engaging in revenue-generating pursuits for the company in line with the NAMPA Objectives.

Minimum Requirements:

- B-Degree in Journalism/Media Studies or equivalent qualifications.
- Minimum of two (2) years' experience as a Journalist
- Valid code B driver's license.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Excellent command of English language.
- Excellent Communication and Interpersonal Skills.
- Time management.
- Teamwork.

Key Performance Areas:

- Produce quality stories every month in written, photo and audio formats for local, national, regional and international press.
- Conduct research to get background information on stories, including interviews with those involved in various news articles.
- Review own articles and ensure correct usage of grammar.
- Submit to the diary meetings "intended activities of the day" and report to the Assistant News Editor on activities in the region.
- Responsible for the administrative duties of the region, equipment and vehicles and ensures all is kept in working condition.

Duty Station: Gobabis, but the incumbent must be prepared to travel throughout Omaheke Region.

Closing date: 30 June 2017. Comprehensive application, accompanied by a detailed CV should be mailed or hand delivered to: admin@nampa.org.

ONLY SHORTLISTED APPLICANTS WILL BE CONTACTED!